

Funding Categories

The Delta Foundation believes that small positive changes can have a much larger impact, especially those made in effort to transform our communities. Our quality of life priorities include those that can not only provide tools and services, but will leave an ever-lasting impact. We encourage all organizations that support these priorities to apply for a grant through the Delta Foundation.

Arts & Education

Programs are established outside of primary or secondary schools and work with the community by providing educational or art-related services. These programs can vary in their target audience and content.

Mental Health & Wellness

Programs that serve the community by providing tools or services that better those with emotional, environmental, financial, social, or physical needs. These programs focus on the overall wellness of their target audience.

Basic Needs

Programs that address the basic needs of the community, including but not limited to: food, shelter, clothing, hygiene, and tools for long term success. These programs can be broad or specific in the services they provide.
